Dear Sirs

Re: Vulekamali website offline

All of the very best to the staff of the National Treasury as we begin 2022.

Our letter of 2 December 2021 refers. Unfortunately we have not received a reply. Please could you return to us shortly with responses to the questions and suggestions made in our letter?

We note with thanks that the public now receive a notification when visiting the vulekamali website rather than an error message. The website now advises visitors as follows:

Vulekamali is currently under maintenance.

We regret to advise that Vulekamali is unavailable due to maintenance. Should you have any questions please email

BudgetReform@treasury.gov.za or feedback@vulekamali.gov.za

or visit our social media platforms

We look forward to hearing from you shortly and with a view to supporting action to shortly restore public access to the website and ensure progress with tendering for Phase 2 of Vulekamali's development.

Yours faithfully,

On behalf of IMALIYETHU
